

Summary of Qualifications

Bob Crum's 30-year commercial real estate career began after spending two years in the NFL with the St. Louis Cardinals. Bob joined Ross Brown Partners in 2008 following a 30-year career with CB Richard Ellis, where he became one of the most outstanding sales professionals in the Phoenix market. He earned the highest title given to a sales professional—Senior Vice President.

There has been a continuation of creative deal making for the last five years at Ross Brown Partners. Bob continues to add to the millions of square feet of leases, building sales, land development and business/industrial park development.

Bob has continuously demonstrated his ability to provide unique benefits to his clients in land development analysis, investment real estate generation, valuation and disposition and the full range of real estate transaction expertise and experience.
